Periodic shoulder and lane closures are expected to begin next week, (June 1st) and continue at various times through the end of the year. This safety overhaul features energy-efficient LED poles to improve visibility for pedestrians and cyclists. We encourage motorists to plan ahead, use caution in work zones, and allow for additional travel time.

We appreciate your patience and understanding as these improvements are completed and look forward to the long-term safety and pedestrian benefits this project will bring to the community.

SPECIAL 250TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION

From one of our Clients

Thanks to Rick and Ingrid for such great work. I give this team a 10 out of 10 from the beginning to the end. They were nothing but awesome. I called a set up a meeting and from that point on it was a breeze. Literally all I did was that one meeting and they took the ball and ran with it. My property was listed and sold within a month. They kept me informed thru- out the process. I did absolutely little. They cleaned and find someone to fix the minor repairs, they even picked up mail for me. Anyone looking to sell their home should give this team a call ASAP. They are a one stop shop. Highly recommend. Very professionally and everything was done in a timely manner. So, looking to sell GIVE THEM A CALL!!!

Sincerely,
Shirlene Jackson

BROWARD COUNTY PROPERTY APPRAISER

Important News for New Homeowners

When buying/acquiring real estate, do not assume the property taxes will remain the same as the current owner's taxes. Under Florida law, a change in ownership requires the property to be reassessed at current full market value the year following the change of ownership OR if a Homestead Exemption is added/removed from the property. This reassessment could result in higher property taxes for the new owner than what the seller was paying. Please use our Tax Estimator available online to approximate your new property taxes based on the reassessed value.

If you are moving to a new home and have held a Homestead Exemption anywhere within Florida during the past three tax years, you may be eligible to transfer your Save Our Homes (SOH) benefit to your new home to help lower the property's assessed value and subsequent taxes. The Portability Estimator available online helps you approximate what your new property taxes will be using any portability you may be transferring from another property.

To use our Tax Estimator and Portability Estimator, please visit web.bcpa.net and click on "Online Tools."

The Property Appraiser does not set or collect taxes. Tax rates/fees are set by individual taxing authorities each year based on their budgetary needs. All property tax billing and collecting is handled by the Broward County Tax Collector's Office. Should you have any questions regarding payment of taxes, please visit their website at browardtax.org or contact them directly at (954) 357-4829 or revenue@browardtax.org.

Homestead Exemption and Portability save eligible property owners thousands of dollars each year. For information on all tax-saving exemptions including Homestead Exemption and the Limited-Income Senior Exemption, please visit our website at web.bcpa.net and click on "Exemptions & Classifications."

The absolute deadline to apply for any 2026 exemption is September 18, 2026.

If my office can ever be of assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact me directly at martykiar@bcpa.net.

Safety Solutions

Scammers Will Meet You Face-to-Face

Gone are the days when crime prevention guys like me only worried about scam phone calls from overseas.

We're starting to see more and more cases of victims meeting their scammers face-to-face.

The bad guys try to get their hooks into you using a variety of different methods. We've seen fraudsters pretend to be from the victim's bank. They tell them their bank card is compromised and that they're sending a representative from the bank to the victim's door to pick up the "bad" card. Of course, there's nothing actually wrong with the victim's bank card. Until they had it over to the scammer face-to-face of course.

We've seen prize winner scams where you're all the sudden the "grand prize winner" of some contest you don't even remember entering. In order to get your money, you have to come up with a few thousand dollars up front. "Taxes" or "fees" the bad guys might say. They'll arrange for courier to meet you at your bank, or in some parking lot, after you withdraw the money.

The face-to-face meeting with scam artists is starting to become more prevalent and it's both worrying, and an opportunity.

Since the scammer is not sitting in a condo near the beach in South America, there are better opportunities to crack these fraud networks and make arrests.

At the same time, it's concerning because, face-to-face, these con artists are even more apt to gain the victim's trust. Plus, what happens if this in-person meeting goes bad? Is potential violence a possibility? It's something to consider if you're thinking about meeting a complete stranger somewhere face-to-face.

The best crime prevention tool to use in these cases is patience.

If the fraudster is posing as a bank agent and trying to get you to hand your card over to them, why not buy some time? Stop and think. Have I noticed anything weird with my card? Why don't I drive to my closest branch and ask them? Could this be a good time to call my son, or daughter, or trusted friend and go over what's happening with them?

If you're suddenly the winner of some lottery you can't remember entering. Take a moment and ask yourself, "Is this too good to be true?"

The bad guys want you to act immediately. Whether it be out of fear, excitement, or some other emotion, they don't want you to stop and think. They want you to go.

Sometimes the best thing to do in those moments is slow yourself down. What's going on here? Could they be taking advantage of me? Is there more to this than meets the eye?

The bottom line is that if a fraudster has convinced you into taking an in-person meeting then we've already lost.

To win more of these battles against the scam artists we need your help to be aware. Slow down. Don't let them scare you. Don't fall for promises of big money or prizes. Stop the rollercoaster ride before it starts.

The best way to avoid a face-to-face meeting with a scammer is to never show up.

Are You Living With, Or Worried About Someone Suffering With Chronic Back Pain?

By Leading Back Pain Expert, Todd James

Do you, or someone you love, suffer with back pain? Does the pain get worse when you stand or walk? Do you experience pain, numbness or tingling into your butt or down your leg? Do you have pain when you sit for long periods or drive? Are you afraid your pain will get worse if you don't do anything about it? Has the pain gotten so bad, that you avoid many activities that you used to enjoy?

If you are 55+ and answered YES to any of these questions, then please read on because I have some special information about relief of your back pain.

It's a shame so many people think their options for dealing with back pain are rest, pain killers, or maybe worse, injections or even surgery. Often these solutions are only temporary, because they don't address the true cause of your back pain, but just mask the symptoms. Others believe there is nothing that can be done, and they will just have to suffer through the pain.

If you or someone you love is experiencing back pain and are wondering if you are doing the right things for your back, I would like to offer a free guide I have created to answer those questions. In this guide, Erasing Back Pain: How to Avoid the 9 Most Painful Mistakes and What You Should Be Doing Instead, you will find information about what will not help ease your back pain and how to make the right choices to get you out of back pain and on the road to enjoying an active, healthy lifestyle again.

I'm Todd James, Physical Therapist and I have been helping 1000s of people 55+ over the last 2 decades find quick, natural, long lasting relief from back pain. I've put together this guide because in easing your back pain it's not just about doing the right things, but also about avoiding the wrong things. When you choose the right path, your recovery from back pain will be much more effective.

If you are currently held back from getting a good night's sleep, being able to walk with friends, getting out on the golf course, or playing with the grand-kids, I invite you to visit www.coconutcreektherapy.com/backpain to claim your free guide. If you prefer, give us a call at 954-972-1200 and we'll be happy to assist you.

Don't let back pain take the joy out of your life. Get started on your path to a pain free active life!
